

Inviting you to
A workshop to awaken and understand your life's potential!

Sand Spirits™

with Pamela Hale

creator of the Sand Spirit™ cards and author of the new Sand Spirits: The Workbook

Saturday, March 31, 2007 9-12

Sponsored by Jeni Halliday and held at her house in Houston

The Sand Spirit™ cards are unique photographic images that have inspired and awakened people all over the world. Working with them will help you:

- ❖ Find your life purpose, power and passion
- ❖ See and appreciate the wonders of nature
- ❖ Understand the power of symbols in everyday decision-making
- ❖ Enhance and deepen your inner life
- ❖ Reveal your own power to heal, teach and see yourself
- ❖ Communicate on a level deeper than words

The Sand Spirits have been tested with hundreds of children and adults in business, personal and therapeutic settings. You can use these the rest of your personal and professional life!

Pam Hale Trachta is a teacher, photographic artist, shamanic practitioner and a pioneer in the field of therapeutic photography. She discovered and used the Sand Spirits in conjunction with her own healing journey, and will donate 10% of her profits to cancer research and prevention.

Register by March 1 for this event! Send a check for $72 made out to Through A Different Lens, Inc. to Jeni Halliday, 5 Duchess Ct., Houston, TX 77204.

Sand Spirit cards and workbooks will be for sale at the event at a discounted price. Or, buy them in advance and learn more about Pam's work at ThroughADifferentLens.com. Private sessions for intuitive counseling and energy healing can be arranged through Jeni.

"The Sand Spirits are a beautiful and effective tool for leading people into different perceptual states, crucial for shamanic work and for appreciating and living life with passion and wholeness."—Alberto Villoldo, Ph.D., author of Shaman, Healer Sage
